

EMSCNJ Scholarships

To be eligible to receive the Cadet Scholarship or the Past President Fred Steinkopf Scholarship, the applicant must be a member in good standing of a squad in good standing with the EMSCNJ. To be eligible to receive the Gail Lawrence Memorial Scholarship, the applicant must be associated (member, family member, friend of a member) with a squad that is in good standing with the EMSCNJ.

Scholarship applications for The EMSCNJ Cadet Scholarship must be postmarked or received by email by the April 1 due date.

Scholarship applications for The Gail Lawrence Memorial Scholarship and The Past President Fred Steinkopf Scholarship must be postmarked by the April 1 due date. These scholarships cannot be submitted by email.

To be in good standing, a squad must have completed and submitted their reports, paid their dues and be up to date with their vehicle inspections no later than April 1 or each year. If you have any questions, please contact your District Vice President.

The EMSCNJ Cadet Scholarship is a $1,000 scholarship for High School students in their senior year, who are cadet and/or junior members in good standing of member squads in good standing of the EMSCNJ, and who will be pursuing a course of study that will lead to a degree from a post-secondary school.

The Past President Fred Steinkopf Scholarship is a $500 scholarship for students who are currently enrolled in a college/university/trade school (freshmen, sophomores or juniors), who are members in good standing of member squads that are in good standing of the EMSCNJ, and who will be continuing their studies in a post-secondary school. This scholarship is provided in his memory by his wife and family.

The Gail Lawrence Memorial Scholarship is a $1,000 scholarship for those pursuing advanced degrees in any Medical field. This scholarship was established in memory of Gail Lawrence, who was a Mobile Intensive Care Nurse and an Advanced Practice Nurse and an Educator with Rutgers University.